NEWS RELEASE

RLR Management Consulting to Host August Educational Workshop

- Topics to include cybersecurity, compliance management and mobile financial services -

RENO, Nev., Aug. 9, 2016 - RLR Management Consulting (RLR), the industry's longest tenured privately owned consulting firm for community and regional banks, announced that the company will be hosting an educational workshop on Wednesday, Aug. 17, at the Embassy Suites – LAX North in Los Angeles.

Registration starts at 9:30 a.m. and the workshop begins at 10 a.m. Topics include:

- A "Cybersecurity Update" presented by Mitch Razook, president and chief operations officer of RLR, detailing key cybersecurity considerations and actions in light of the recently updated FFIEC guidelines;
- A session titled, "Compliance Management – Is Your Program Up to Speed," presented by Ruth Razook, founder and CEO of RLR;
- A presentation, "Mobile Financial Services Update to FFIEC IT Examination Handbook Updates," delivered by Ruth discussing key changes in the Federal Financial Institution Examination Council handbook regarding mobile financial services.

"After a successful March workshop, we are especially looking forward to the August meeting where we intend to focus more heavily on how banks can best respond to key issues impacted by our ever-changing environment," said Ruth Razook. "Our goal is to educate financial services industry professionals on important changes happening in our industry in order to help them maintain compliance and deliver the best customer experience possible."

This is part of a series of workshops hosted by RLR to address the hot button issues associated with the financial services industry. The sessions are open to anyone in the finance sector wanting to learn more about important trends in the industry. If you are interested in attending this workshop, please visit our website www.rlrmgmt.com or email us at info@rlrmgmt.com.
