

RLR can work with you to assess the opportunities that may arise, identify those that would be financially feasible and consistent with your strategic growth plan through our comprehensive due diligence process. We can also help you identify the internal and external resources that you will need to successfully acquire and integrate an acquisition into your company. If your bank is seeking a merger partner, we can perform a comprehensive analysis of your organization that will help define expectations and drive shareholder value. A sampling of our Merger & Acquisition related services includes:

- Due Diligence of Potential Acquisitions (all aspects of the Enterprise)
- Strategic Planning
- Assistance with Acquisitions and Conversions
- Assistance with Operations Integration and Efficiencies
- Risk Mitigation Support
- Technology Review and Integration Support
- Assistance with Organizational Plans and Budgets to Position for growth
- Staffing
- Assistance with Internal Audit and Risk Management Programs
- Loan Portfolio Review and Analysis
- Review, Development and Integration of Policies and Procedures
- Contract Negotiations and Vendor Due Diligence
- Industry Guidance and Recommendations

